- SAC Funds Balance Update
SRF: $3932.32 (School used $10,000.00 funds for classroom devices)
SAC:$10,366.19

New Business- T. Carroll

- T. Carroll introduced new members Micheal McCarthy, Anne Moran, and James Chen. T. Carroll made motion to vote members in and T. Arthur seconded the motion. All in favor and motion passed.
- T. Carroll distributed FCM's SAC minutes from the September 2024's and October 2024's meeting. T. Carroll motioned to approve minutes from September and October...K. Cornell seconded...motion passed, and minutes approved.
- T. Carroll displayed School Improvement Plan presentation and presented School Improvement Plan (SIP) overview. T. Carroll explained how the plan drives the School Advisory Council. SAC should help develop, review/approve, and monitor progress of the SIP. T. Carroll explained the importance of the SIP. It helps teachers and administrators stay focused on meeting the needs of students and provides a framework for measuring progress.

Principal's Update – A. Hilts

- A. Hilts followed up with the importance of SAC involvement with school improvement. A. Hilts gave the example of how SAC approves spending of funds to support students. She summarized the goals and area of focus for the school which is to ensure all students meet and exceed academic standards. (All students include the schools' ESE or exceptional student education students). Mrs. Hilts presented the academic achievements of the school and showed how the data supports how Fruit Cove Middle School has become the highest achieving middle school in the school district.

- A. Hilts celebrated the boy's and girls' volleyball teams for making it to the championship. The boy's have taken home the championship for two consecutive year and looks forward to seeing if FCM can take the championship home again for this year.
- Tomorrow, 11/23/24, is the first full Wednesday due to the hurricane make up hours.
