Old Business- T. Carroll- SAC funds balance (No Change)

- SRF: $8,472.21 No changes
- SAC: $266.41- No changes

New Business- T. Carroll

- T. Carroll welcomed everyone to the meeting and presented today's agenda. T. Carroll discussed the approval of the minutes from April 14, 2026, and March 10, 2026. J. Chen makes a motion to approve the minutes. M. McCarthy seconds the motion to approve the minutes. T. Carroll discussed the SRF voting results. 58 total teachers voted. According to the results, Option 1 had 46 votes, and 12 votes for option 2. There will also be an increase in the SAC funds balance due to leftover Amazon funds from teacher lead money. M. McCarthy made a motion to approve Option 1, and J. Chen seconds the motion. The results will be sent to the district for approval at the beginning of the next school year. Funds will be available to the teachers around December.

- Principal's Update- A. Hensley

Ms. Hensley updated the committee on testing updates. Students are doing a great job in testing. Finalists from FCMS went to the speech contest and earned 4th place. There have been a lot of different events at the school, including bands, chorus, and drama. Eighth-grade awards took place this morning and over 250 awards were given. Teacher appreciation took place a few weeks ago and was led by PTO. Teacher appreciation was sent out via Parent Square. Two hundred and ninety-nine students will be going on Gradventure this Friday. Eighth-grade fun day is coming up in a few weeks during the last week of school.

Adjourned: Motion to adjourn was made by T. Carroll. J. Chen seconded the motion to adjourn.
